FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN AND BEVERLY BAYNE AS "ROMEO" AND "JULIET" IN THE ELASORATE METRO PICTURIZATION OF THE GREAT SHAKESPEARIAN PLAY

When Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Tayne, the greatest stellar combination in motion pictures, are seen in the big screen production of light the opportunity to seeme portraits "Romeo and Juliet," an ambition of many years standing will then be of the 15 most famous moving picture realized by these two stars. It has always been their dream to appear together in this production, and Metro is leaving nothing undone to make it one of the year's screen sensations.

Never before, in the history of the silent drama, has there been a of this offer. Call or mail all order to more elaborate or artistic production. More than five hundred people were used in some of the biggest scenes. Castles of millionaires, near New York City, were used with their spacious grounds, and in staging many of the outdoor scenes an entire Italian city, of the fourteenth century type, was constructed for the street scenes in Verona. A notable supporting cast includes scores of actors and actresses who have been featured in many stage productions.

Expected To Pay.

Receiving The Courier at the postoffice regularly beyond the time for which it is paid means that you WILL BE EXPECTED TO PAY FOR IT and a plea of "ordered it stopped," "never subscribed for it," "only subscribed for a certain period," etc., will not be accepted. The printed label on your paper every day it reaches your hands shows where you stand. We do not want to force the paper on an unwilling subscriber a single day neither do we feel disposed to cut off a responsible person on suspicion who does not re mt on the exact date of expiration

We know of a number of families who are regular readers of the Courier but are not subscribers, they borrow the paper from their neighbors. We are gial to know that the Courier is thus 300-ciated, but why not subscribe? the price is small and we would ar reciate having these names on our mailing list.

A man that won't patronize his home paper is a detriment to his community. A town without a live, up to date newspaper is like a ship without a rudder, and every live, up to date citizen owes it his support.
